The Situation.

The people of this day, unlike the days of a century ago, read and study both politics and religion for themselves, do their own thinking and come to their own conclusions. At this time the people of this country, both men and women, are busy in reflection as to the best policy to be pursued in this republic. From the adoption of the Constitution to the present year, we have, beyond parallel, in the world's history of nations, increased from four to forty millions. Up to within ten years we have been almost exclusively a manufacturing and agricultural people, having comparatively no wars, or standing armies; but our history, from 1861 to 1865, is one of blood and anarchy. The storm which for thirty years, was gathering, to break upon us in such torrents, has passed. Our lakes and seas no longer swarm with iron-clads, and our rivers and streamlets have ceased to be stained with human gore, and the watch word of the great mass of the American people once more is, "Let us have peace."

And now the question is, under all these circumstances, what course shall the voters of Oregon pursue? It is agreed by all that there is an extreme in both parties, to which it would be dangerous to go; that there are extremists in both parties whose counsels and lead it would be dangerous to follow. Then we suggest to the honest voters of Polk county and the State that, before the 6th of June, we stop and take the second, sober thought—and, like men and patriots who are discerning, yes, more than anxious, to establish the Government, both State and national, upon a firm and never-yielding foundation resting in purity like the diamond and thus transmit it to our posterity; let us discard all notions of being governed and controlled in our action by unscrupulous and partisan demagogues, who would sacrifice all to satiate their thirst for place and power; and let us go to the polls like men without fetters, who claim to be freemen, and who dare proclaim it, and vote for men to act as our servants who are honest, upright, ready to sacrifice for the general good, and conservative, high-minded men, men of integrity and moral worth, men of temperate habits and law-abiding men, who are willing to sink forever the partisan in the patriot. Men who are willing to exert themselves to rally the people for the purpose of crushing out evil, from whatever source it may approach, and receive and adopt the right, from whoever it may come, and thus inspire, not only in ourselves but in our posterity in all coming generations, an abiding confidence in the permanency of this government and its republican institutions, and so become in the future, what we have been in the past, a great, happy and prosperous people.

Republican Convention.

We depended too much on the Secretaries of the Republican County Convention for a report of the proceedings and consequently it will be found to be meagre in several particulars.

The Convention was organized in the morning by choosing L. Case as Chairman, and J. H. McCord and T. Pearce as Secretaries. At the coming together of the Convention at 10 o'clock p. m., the Committee on resolutions, consisting of one from each precinct, reported the following County Platform:

Resolved, 1. That we, the Union Republican party of Polk county, endorse the platform of principles adopted at the State Convention at Portland.

2. That we are in favor of the reduction of fees in the offices of Sheriff and Clerk, in the several counties of this State, and in favor of retrenchment in our county, State and national taxes.

3. That while the subject of loaning the credit of the State for the enlargement of railroads, and for other purposes, is being discussed by the press and people, we are opposed to amending the Constitution of Oregon so as to allow the State to lend its credit for any sum greater than is now provided by that instrument.

4. That, while we cheerfully acquiesce in the laws of the land while they remain such upon the statute books, we are unalterably opposed to any further extension of the elective franchise to any, except the white race.

JOHNATHAN DYER, Chairman.

At the close of the reading of the resolutions, the convention cheered, and on motion of P. C. Sullivan, they were unanimously adopted.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate a county ticket. A motion prevailed to vote by ballot on the nominations to be made. The nomination of Representatives to the Legislature being in order, the following names were submitted to the Convention for its consideration, viz: Ed. Delashmunt, B. F. Whitson, Jesse Stump, John Hawley, Dr. Chitwood, B. F. Nichols, — Bell and P. C. Sullivan. Here Messrs. Nichols and Sullivan arose and said that they did not seek or desire the nomination, and thought it better to choose other men.

The vote stood: Delashmunt, 27; Whitson, 8; Stump, 51; Hawley, 35; Chitwood, 6; Nichols, 34; Bell, 5; Sullivan, 11. Thirty votes being a majority of the convention, Jesse Stump, John Hawley and B. F. Nichols were nominated on the first ballot.

For County Judge, the names of Messrs. J. A. Applegate, J. L. Collins, T. Pearce, Wm. Howe, M. M. Dodson, and W. W. Boone were put in nomination. The first ballot stood: Applegate, 1; Collins, 18; Pearce, 11; Howe, 10; Dodson, 9; Boone, 10. No choice. Howe's name was withdrawn. Second ballot: Applegate, 3; Collins, 17; Pearce, 16; Dodson, 12; Boone, 10; blank, 1. No choice. Boone's name withdrawn. Third ballot: Applegate, 1; Collins, 21; Pearce, 28; Dodson, 9. No choice. Fourth ballot: Applegate, 1; Collins, 18; Pearce, 37; Dodson, 3. So T. Pearce was declared the nominee for County Judge.

The names of R. S. Crystal, W. W. Beach and M. Shelly were put in nomination for Clerk. The first ballot stood: Crystal, 28; Beach, 23; Shelly, 6. No choice. Shelly's name withdrawn. Second ballot: Crystal, 30; Beach, 29; so Mr. Crystal was nominated.

For Sheriff, Gesner received 6 votes on the first ballot, Graham 7, Tatem 6, Whitall 2, Jeffries 31, Davidson 11, Sebring 1; so Jeffries was nominated.

For County Commissioners Ed. Delashmunt and I. Zumwalt were nominated by acclamation.

For Assessor D. Cosper received 34 votes, H. H. McCord 19, and Helms 6; and D. Cosper was declared duly nominated.

W. W. Beach was nominated for Superintendent of Common Schools. For Coroner, Dr. N. Hudson, and for County Surveyor, W. C. Whitson. The Convention having completed its labor, the body adjourned.

Grover and Chinamen.

Now it makes no kind of difference to us what kind of labor the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company employs, but when Mr. Grover goes about the country claiming superior virtue over other men, we like to show what his record is on the China question; and the more so since the Democratic newspapers are publishing double-lead affidavits for the purpose of establishing his purity. Dolan says Grover never spoke to him about hiring Chinamen, but he does not say that efforts were not made to introduce Chinese labor into the factory at Salem. The following affidavits establish the fact very conclusively that Dolan has lied: STATE OF OREGON, ss. Clackamas County, } ss.

I, R. Jacob, do solemnly swear that some time in the fall of 1868, and at several times, I had conversations with W. P. Dolan, acting agent of the Chinese in Portland. I was managing agent of the Oregon City Woolen Mills. Mr. Dolan was extremely anxious to have me take Chinamen in the mill at Oregon City. Among other things he stated in the fall of 1868, in his office over Randall's store, in Portland, that the Salem mill was about to employ Chinese; that he had just received a letter from Mr. Grover, the agent of the Salem mills, proposing to take Chinese; that they were waiting for me to do the same, and then they would go in. Mr. Grover, he said, was only waiting to see the result here, and then would take them.

(Signed,) I. R. JACOB. Subscribed and sworn to before me, May 13th, 1870. F. O. McCOWN, Notary Public.

STATE OF OREGON, ss. Clackamas County, } ss.

I, L. E. Pratt, being first duly sworn, say that while I was agent of the O. C. M. F. Co. in the winter of 1865-66, W. P. Dolan, the then acting agent of the Chinese in the city of Portland, called me into his place of business (Randall's) in Portland, and proposed to furnish Chinese laborers for the Oregon City factory, and said at the same time he was negotiating with the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, of Salem, to employ Chinese operatives in their factory. He further said, in substance, that we (i. e. the O. C. M. F. Co.) would have to employ them to compete with the Salem Company.

(Signed,) L. E. PRATT. Subscribed and sworn to before me, on the 13th day of May, A. D. 1870. F. O. McCOWN, Notary Public, in and for Oregon.

STATE OF OREGON, ss. Clackamas County, } ss.

I, W. C. Johnson, do solemnly swear, that for two or more years before May, 1868, I was one of the Directors of the Oregon City Manufacturing Company; that Mr. W. P. Dolan, then acting agent of the Chinese in Portland, ascertained, from some source, that I was opposed to the employment of Chinese in said Oregon City Mill at that time; that several times while I was such Director, Mr. Dolan called me into Randall's Music Store, where he was staying, to endeavor to change my mind on the subject. In those conversations he stated to me more than once that the Salem mills were proposing to take Chinese operatives, and that we must do so, or they would run us out of the market by making goods cheaper than we could. He further stated that these two companies were afraid of each other upon this matter of employing Chinamen, but that they could and ought to agree to both put them in at the same time, and that the Salem Directors and agents were ready for such an arrangement.

Whether or not, Mr. Dolan, in his anxiety to secure employment for his clients, misrepresented the managers of the Salem mills, is a question I am unable to answer.

(Signed,) W. C. JOHNSON. Subscribed and sworn to before me, May 13th, 1870. F. O. McCOWN, Notary Public, in and for Oregon.

Political Notes.

Col. W. W. Chapman published, in the Portland Commercial, the following letters, which explain themselves: PORTLAND, May 5, 1870.

Editor Commercial—Sir: By the Herald of this morning I learn that the Multnomah Democratic County Convention, on yesterday, placed my name upon the ticket for the office of County Surveyor. I direct that my name shall be taken off from that ticket at once. While I am duly grateful to those who, without due consideration of all the circumstances, and who, from good motives, gave me their votes in convention, I cannot regard the nomination in any other light than a burlesque. The Democrats of Multnomah county, by their duly elected delegates to the County Convention, held March 12th, had seen fit to recommend the delegates then chosen to the State Convention, to cast their votes for me as the Democratic candidate for Governor; and, in view of this fact, the idea that I should now accept the nomination for County Surveyor is preposterous. More especially is it so, after I had, by letter, expressly declined to accept any nomination at the hands of the County Convention, unless upon the adoption, by the Convention, of certain resolutions which accompanied my letter to a member of the Convention, and which resolutions were, by a vote of the County Convention, laid upon the table.

As my letter and resolutions did not appear among the published proceedings of the Convention, I herewith enclose a copy for publication in your paper.

W. W. CHAPMAN.

PORTLAND, May 6, 1870.

I am under obligations to the Herald editor for the foregoing complimentary notice of my public services in his paper this morning. They are treasured where they will be remembered when his rotten sheet will have passed away as waste paper. Had he heeded or noted my earnest efforts to eradicate from the Democratic mind the seeds of Repudiation which the Herald has sown broadcast, to-day our speakers would be sated the necessity of long and labored speeches in defence of the 5th resolution, and would have ample time to pierce the works of the enemy at the weakest points, from which they have succeeded in diverting public attention to a considerable extent.

W. W. CHAPMAN.

All remember how Grover, in his speech here last Tuesday, berated the Chinamen and the late Burlingame treaty, and prophesied of the destruction of the government in a few years. How he magnified the burdens of the public debt, and how he was in favor of paying it off in greenbacks; and to that end was in favor of putting in motion the printing presses for the purpose of making more greenbacks. Now we wish to contrast this position with that of B. F. Harding, who is running on the Democratic ticket in Marion county, for the State Senate. That gentleman said, in a speech delivered at Waco, last Saturday, that:

The question of Chinese citizenship was not and could not be made an issue in this campaign, and he doubted very much whether it would ever seriously divide the people of this coast. Both parties here were alike opposed to it. Besides, he said there was no probability that the Chinaman would ever ask to become a citizen, and if he did he could not under our naturalization laws. Speaking of the late treaty with the Chinese Empire, he said the object and end of that treaty, like the former treaties, was to extend and enlarge our commerce with that nation; that it secured to us commercial advantages that we never enjoyed before, and that this nation, and the people of this coast in particular, could not afford to lose the trade and commerce of that great Empire. He showed that our principal commerce in the future must be with those Asiatic nations, and from whom we would derive our commercial greatness.

On the question of the payment of the national debt, he said there was now no other way of paying that debt except in coin, since the recent decisions of the Supreme Court made coin the only legal tender; that we had to pay it dollar for dollar in coin, and that all talk about paying it any other way was twaddle. The repeal of the 14th and 15th Amendments was simply an impossibility, he said. He differed with the Republican party on questions of tariff and the administration of the affairs of this State.

A boy aged fourteen hung himself at Exeter, England, lately, deliberately allowing himself to be strangled, though his knees touched the floor. He is described as a peculiarly "sulky" boy. At one of the Oxford colleges a student aged sixteen accidentally banged himself with a window cord, which it is supposed he was trying to arrange, when he slipped off a sofa, and the cord coiled about his neck and choked him.
